SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
Samil Antigua, on behalf of himself and others
similarly situated in the proposed FLSA Collective Action,

Case No.:

Plaintiff,

Jury Trial Demanded

- against -

COMPLAINT

Dynamic Event Group Inc. (d/b/a Dynamic Productions USA), and Brian Rosenblum,

Defendants.

-----X
Plaintiff Samil Antigua (“Plaintiff” or “Antigua”), on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Levin-Epstein & Associates, P.C., upon personal knowledge as to himself and upon information and belief as to others, brings this complaint against Defendants Dynamic Event Group Inc. (d/b/a Dynamic Productions USA) (the “Corporate Defendant”) and Brian Rosenblum (the “Individual Defendant”, and together with the Corporate Defendant, the “Defendants”) and states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff bring this lawsuit seeking recovery, for himself and all other similarly situated individuals, against Defendants’ violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and violations of Articles 6 and 19 of the New York State Labor Law (“NYLL”) and their supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

2. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and to recover unpaid overtime wages, unpaid spread-of-hours, unlawfully deducted wages, liquidated and statutory damages, pre- and post-judgment interest, and attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, and the NYLL's Wage Theft Prevention Act ("WTPA").

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this case pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1337, and has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims under the NYLL pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because his claims arise under the FLSA.

5. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c), because all events relevant to this action occurred in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

THE PARTIES

PLAINTIFF SAMIL ANTIGUA

6. Plaintiff is a resident of Bronx County, New York.

7. Plaintiff was employed as an event production staff member for Defendants from on or around August 2017 through and including August 15, 2019.

8. Plaintiff was employed as a non-managerial employee for Defendants from August 2017 through and including August 15, 2019.

9. At all relevant times, Plaintiff has been an employee within the meaning of Section 3(e) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(e).

10. At all relevant times, Plaintiff has been a manual worker within the meaning of NYLL § 191(1)(a).

DEFENDANT DYNAMIC EVENT GROUP INC. (D/B/A DYNAMIC PRODUCTIONS USA)

11. Upon information and belief, Defendant Dynamic Event Group Inc. (d/b/a Dynamic Productions USA) is a domestic limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 300 Blaisdell Road, Orangeburg, NY 10962.

12. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Dynamic Event Group Inc. (d/b/a Dynamic Productions USA) (i) has had and continues to have employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods and services for commerce and handling, selling, or otherwise working on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce by any person and (ii) has had and continues to have an annual gross volume of sales of not less than $500,000.00.

13. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Dynamic Event Group Inc. (d/b/a Dynamic Productions USA) was and is a covered employer within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d) and, at all times relevant to this Complaint, employed employees, including Plaintiff.

14. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Dynamic Event Group Inc. (d/b/a Dynamic Productions USA) was and is an employer within the meaning of the 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and NYLL Section 190(3), and employed employees, including Plaintiff.

DEFENDANT BRIAN ROSENBLUM

15. Defendant Brian Rosenblum is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business within this judicial district during the relevant time period.

16. Defendant Brian Rosenblum is sued individually and in his capacity as an owner, officer and/or agent of the Corporate Defendant

17. Defendant Brian Rosenblum possesses or possessed operational control over the Corporate Defendant, or controlled significant functions of the Corporate Defendant.

18. Defendant Brian Rosenblum determined the wages and compensation of employees, including Plaintiff, established the schedules of employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

19. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Brian Rosenblum was and is an employer within the meaning of the 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and NYLL Section 190(3), and employed employees, including Plaintiff.

DEFENDANTS CONSTITUTE JOINT EMPLOYERS

20. Defendants own, operate and/or control an events production company known as Dynamic Productions USA

21. The Individual Defendant possesses operational control over the Corporate Defendant, possesses an ownership interest in the Corporate Defendant, and controls significant functions of the Corporate Defendant.

22. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

23. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

24. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, and are Plaintiff's (and all similarly situated individuals') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

25. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff and/or similarly situated individuals.

26. Upon information and belief, the Individual Defendant operates the Corporate Defendant as either an alter ego of himself, and/or fails to operate the Corporate Defendant as an entity legally separate and apart from himself, by, among other things:

- a. failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate the Corporate Defendant as a separate and legally distinct entity;
- b. defectively forming or maintaining the Corporate Defendant, by among other things failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records;
- c. transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants;
- d. operating the Corporate Defendant for his own benefit as the majority shareholder;
- e. operating the Corporate Defendant for his own benefit and maintaining control over it as a closed corporation or closely controlled entity;
- f. intermingling assets and debts of his own with the Corporate Defendant;
- g. diminishing and/or transferring assets of the Corporate Defendant to protect his own interests; and
- h. other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

27. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and NYLL.

28. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff's services.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

29. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals are individuals who have worked for Defendants in similarly-titled, hourly paid position, during the statutory period.

30. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals all shared similar job titles, training, job descriptions and job tasks, during the statutory period.

31. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.

32. Plaintiff worked as an event production staff member at Defendants' events production company, Dynamic Productions USA.

33. At Dynamic Productions USA, Plaintiff was responsible for traveling to and from events located throughout New York and the Northeastern United States, where he performed inter alia, stagehand services, lighting, audio, and equipment installations.

34. Plaintiff was also a general worker at Defendants' warehouse, located at 300 Blaisdell Road, Orangeburg, NY 10962.

35. At Dynamic Productions USA, Plaintiff regularly worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

36. From approximately August 2017 through and including August 15, 2019, Plaintiff worked two (2) to seven (7) days a week: ten (10) to eighteen (18) hours each day, for a total period of approximately 20 hours to 80 hours during each of the weeks, respectively.

37. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was paid his wages in cash.

38. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was paid his wages bi-weekly.

39. For approximately the first week of Plaintiff's employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff at a rate of $25 per hour.

40. For the remainder of Plaintiff's employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff at a rate of $15 per hour.

41. Plaintiff regularly worked for the Defendants in excess of forty (40) hours a week but never received an overtime premium of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for those hours.

42. Plaintiff's wages did not vary regardless of how many additional hours he worked in a week.

43. At all relevant times, Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff for one hour's pay at the basic minimum hourly wage rate for each day his shift exceeded ten (10) hours.

44. On multiple occasions, Plaintiff was required to go to Defendants' warehouse, located at 300 Blaisdell Road, Orangeburg, NY 10962, before and after his scheduled events.

45. Plaintiff was not paid for the travel time to, and from, the warehouse and the event locations.

46. On multiple occasions, Plaintiff was assigned to work at events located in upstate New York, Connecticut, and New Hampshire.

47. Plaintiff was not paid for the travel time to, and from, his point of departure (the Bronx, New York), and the event locations.

48. To Plaintiff's knowledge, Defendants did not utilize any time tracking device, such as sign in sheets or punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

49. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages are required under the FLSA or NYLL.

50. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

51. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff, in English (Plaintiff's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL § 195(1).

52. At all relevant times, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at the rate of one and one-half times his hourly wage rate for hours worked in excess of forty per workweek.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

53. Plaintiff brings the First, Second, and Third Claims for Relief as a collective action pursuant to FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf of all non-exempt persons (including but not limited to transport route drivers and couriers) employed by Defendants on or after the date that is six years before filing of the Complaint in this case, as defined herein (“FLSA Collective Plaintiffs”).

54. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are and have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and are and have been subject to Defendants’ decision, policy, plan and common policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines and rules willfully failing and refusing to pay them at the legally required overtime wage for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per work week. These claims of the Plaintiff are essentially the same as those of the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

55. The First, Second, and Third Claims for Relief are properly brought under and maintained as an opt-in collective action pursuant to under FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b). The FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are readily ascertainable. For purpose of notice and others related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from the Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs via first class mail to the last address known to Defendants.

56. Plaintiff reserves the right to re-define the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs prior to notice or collective certification, and thereafter, as necessary.

FIRST CLAIM
(FLSA – Unpaid Overtime Wages, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq.)

57. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

58. At all relevant times to this action, Plaintiff is a covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the FLSA.

59. Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular rate at which Plaintiff was employed for all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek pursuant to the overtime wage provisions set forth in the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, et seq.

60. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which he is entitled under the FLSA.

61. Defendants willfully violated the FLSA by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

62. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, is entitled to recover his unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

SECOND CLAIM
(NYLL – Unpaid Overtime Wages)

63. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

64. Plaintiff is covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the NYLL and supporting New York Department of Labor ("NYDOL") Regulations.

65. Under the NYLL and supporting NYDOL Regulations, Defendants are required to pay Plaintiff one and one half times the regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage, for all hours they worked in excess of forty.

66. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which he is entitled under the NYLL.

67. Defendants willfully violated the NYLL by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

68. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover his unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

THIRD CLAIM
(NYLL – Spread-of-Hours Pay)

69. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

70. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff additional compensation of one hour's pay at the basic minimum hourly wage rate for each day during which the Plaintiff's shifts spread over more than ten (10) hours.

71. By Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff spread-of-hours pay, Defendants willfully violated §650 et seq. of the NYLL and violated the supporting NYDOL regulations, including, but not limited to, 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146-1.6.

72. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover an amount prescribed by statute, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

FOURTH CLAIM
(NYLL WTPA– Failure to Provide Wage Notices)

73. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

74. The NYLL and the WTPA require employers to provide all employees with a written notice of wage rates at the time of hire.

75. In violation of NYLL §195 (1), Defendants failed to furnish to Plaintiff at the time of hiring, or whenever their rate(s) of pay changed, with a wage notice containing the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other, allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer in accordance with NYLL §191; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law.

76. Due to Defendants’ violations of NYLL §195 (1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover his liquidated damages, reasonable attorney’s fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-b).

FIFTH CLAIM
(Violation of the Wage Statement Provisions of the NYLL)

77. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

78. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a statement listing each of the following the dates of work covered by the payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; the number of regular hours worked; the number of overtime hours worked, as required by the NYLL § 195(3).

79. As a result of Defendant's violation of the WTPA, Plaintiff is entitled to damages of at least $150 per week during which the violations occurred.

SIXTH CLAIM
(Failure to Pay Timely Wages)

80. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

81. NYLL § 191(1)(a) prohibits employers from paying manual workers at no less than on a weekly basis.

82. As described above, throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was paid his wages bi-weekly.

83. As a result of Defendants' violation of NYLL § 191(1)(a), Plaintiff is entitled to recover her liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-a).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, respectfully requests that this Court enter a judgment:

- a. authorizing Plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have up through the extent allowable under the statute of limitations and including the date of issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as nonexempt employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied minimum wages and premium overtime wages;
- b. certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA;
- c. issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by

- filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiff and his counsel to represent the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs;
- d. declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;
 - e. declaring that Defendants violated the spread-of-hours pay provisions of the NYLL and NYDOL Regulations;
 - f. declaring that Defendants violated the notice statement pay provisions of the NYLL and WTPA;
 - g. awarding Plaintiff unpaid overtime wages;
 - h. awarding Plaintiff unpaid spread-of-hours pay;
 - i. awarding unpaid wages under New York State law for failure to pay timely wages;
 - j. awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total amount of wages found to be due;
 - k. awarding unpaid wages under the NYLL and the New York State contract law;
 - l. awarding Plaintiff statutory damages as a result of Defendants' failure to furnish accurate wage notice pursuant to the NYLL;
 - m. awarding Plaintiff pre- and post-judgment interest under the NYLL;
 - n. awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
 - o. Such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.
